License & Pricing Information

All templates listed at BootstrapMade.com are available for free download. We also offer paid/pro versions with more options and features. You can use the free versions in your personal or commercial projects as long as you comply with our license. It is also a good option to test, check the code and find out which template will work best for you. You can upgrade to the pro version later without losing your customization. Please, find out the detailed comparison of licenses in the below table.
